

Good morning Partners,

The National I&R Support Center would like to invite you to join this webinar to learn about an online, free, and confidential tool, CV19 CheckUp, available to help users across the country evaluate their own risk levels associated with COVID-19 through a personalized and comprehensive questionnaire. Data collected through CV19 CheckUp so far is already helping to highlight why it's so critical to focus efforts around helping older adults understand and mitigate risk as illustrated in this national infographic. Please see below for additional information.

Thank you.
