

Dear ADRC Partners and Stakeholders,

The ADRC Designation Criteria has been updated and is now released. Earlier this year, CDA announced that the criteria would be updated to correct information that was older or outdated. The criteria was last published in 2012. A public comment period occurred from March through April, and the approved criteria is attached. A summary of changes is also attached.

You are invited to a public meeting regarding the criteria update this Friday, June 25, from 11:00am-11:30am. Register for the meeting using this link below, and please pass this information along to your partners.

Public Meeting Registration:
