Dear ADRC partners and Stakeholders,

Below is a list of webinars and conferences you might be interested in:

- The next ADRC partner roundtable is on Friday, March 26. The topic will be the digital divide. Lito Morillo from the Independent Living Center of Kern County and Jan Lemucchi from the Kern County Aging and Adult Services will present highlights of their work to bridge the divide during the COVID-19 pandemic. The roundtable will also feature representatives discussing new tools and statewide updates, and there will be time for breakout rooms to connect with ADRC peers. Register in advance for this meeting: https://zoom.us/meeting/register/tJwqcOmprDgpHNz8XiWascMpBCpj00D1J9p5
- The ACL is offering an interactive event this month to discuss strategies and promising practices on the role of community-based organizations (CBOs) in addressing social determinants of health during transitions of care. This Care Transition Peer Hour will feature will share information about their community partner program and the unique role Area Agencies on Aging (AAAs) and Aging and Disability Resource Centers (ADRCs) have played in addressing social determinants of heath as community partners supporting the implementation of value-based payment contracting. Care Transitions March Peer Hour: Wednesday, March 31st from 2:00 – 3:00 PM ET. Register Here!
- CFILC and C4A proudly continue the conversation from their Integrated Conference with a special one-day virtual web conference on Thursday, April 22 (Earth Day) focused on assistive technology. Join professionals in the assistive technology, aging, and disability fields to learn, grow, and network! The interactive workshops include:
  - AT Makers
  - Closing the Digital Divide for Older Adults
  - AT Smart Home
  - The Three R's of AT: Recycle, Refurbish, Reuse
  - AT for Connection and Companionship
  - AT for Aging in Place at Home

  For more information and registration: click here.
- The Alliance of Information and Referral Systems (AIRS) is hosting the Envision I&R e-conference from May 12-14, 2021 at 11am EST.

This three-day conference includes three plenary sessions and a choice of 25 subject matter expert sessions on a variety of essential topics. For more information and registration: click here

Sincerely,

ADRC Branch Team
California Department of Aging
Aging and Disability Resource Connection Branch